David- On August 18, we handed you a document request and requested that you produce documents earlier than 30 days. When we followed up on the request and your representations at the Plaintiffs' depositions regarding getting us documents, you said your Google contact was on vacation. At this point, we want to make sure that we have any relevant documents prior to next week's deposition of Google.. Please call to discuss this. We have made travel reservations to be at the deposition in Calif. on Wed. morning. Lester
